'Please help me die': how can we respond? a lecture by Dr Moyna Bill, Anaesthetist, Royal Victoria hospital in St. Bartholomew's Church, Stranmillis Road on Tuesday 5th May at 1.10 pm. All welcome.

Fellowship groups: Tuesday night group meets this week in Bracken Ridge at 8.p.m. Everybody welcome.

Like to help with Easislides? Wednesday 6th May at 6 pm Cathedral :The team of people who write, produce and present slides for projection in the church is quite small. We would like to INTRODUCE some new people and REFRESH some regulars in the tricks and skills of making Easislides work in church. Some brief guidance on PowerPoint will also be offered. This is hands-on training and if people have a copy for Easislides on a laptop with them they will find the training particularly helpful from www.easislides.com Novices welcome. You will NOT be required to put your new found skills to use except you wish to do so!

General Synod: Friday 8th—Sunday 10th at Armagh City Hotel.

NewWine Ireland: Saturday 9th 10.00—3.00 pm (NB Date Change) at Willowfield. A training and equipping day to build/renew confidence to pray for healing. Speaker Stephen Plumb. To book and for more information, please contact Paul at the their office or Info AT new-wineireland.co.uk

Spring Missionary Evening: you are warmly invited by Child Evangelism Fellowship of Ireland to attend on Saturday 9th May at 8.00 pm in Lisburn Congregation Church Hall. Supper provided.

Open Air Worship: Sunday 10th at 3.30pm The Square Dromore. This event will bring to a close the Civic Week festivities. The programme includes music for all tastes: solo singers, a praise & worship group, and a choir and dancers from St Colman's. Dromore's Youth for Christ will be there with their drama group and puppet ministry. Please support this cross community outreach event. Further details from Lynn McFarland
