

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY 8.11.2009

Welcome to Dromore Cathedral

Sunday 8th November Remembrance Sunday

Today's theme is "Believing on Christ: REMEMBERING THE FALLEN"

Services in November draw their theme from Hebrews 12.1-3 which includes the phrase For the joy set before him Christ "endured the cross, scorning its shame"

Thanks to all who supported The HOPE CONCERT on Friday night., and congratulations to Wendy and her team who made it happen.

Via Wings: The House of Hope is having an open day today (1-3pm). Please call in and support us, everybody welcome. The house opens to the public on Tuesday 10th. Anyone who would like to volunteer to make tea and toast or soup on a regular basis, please let Noelle know.

Evergreens: Tuesday 10th at 2.30 pm in the Clayton Hall. Tom Gribben will present the results of some research he has done for some members of the group: if you are interested in family histories and how to go about finding more about your family then come and join evergreens this week

Christian Aid Lunch: Wednesday 11th at 12.15 pm in the Clayton Hall. A few extra volunteers to assist with serving would be very welcome. Please contact Carol Mackey if you would be interested in helping. With a handful of new volunteers we can share the tasks around: currently we have just enough provided nobody is otherwise engaged! Speak to Carol today.

Bible Class: Wednesday 11th at 8pm in the Clayton Hall. Everyone welcome.

King's Chorale: an evening which includes soloists Nicola Brown and Julie Armstrong is to be held at St Mary's Parish Church, Comber on Saturday 14th at 7.30 pm. Subscription £10.00 (including supper).

Next Sunday is 2nd Sunday before Advent 15th November 2009
