Capture of information

You will notice that each person was handed an A5 flier this morning asking for information relating to you and your family members. The purpose of this is to capture as much information as possible on every person in our Parish in order that we can deliver the best level of care and support to all ages. Of course, completion of this is entirely voluntary, but we would ask that you submit as much information as you feel comfortable with.

Completed fliers should be placed in an envelope and marked for the attention of "The Rector - Confidential" and placed on the offering plate during the month September.
