Wednesday 9th May at 8pm in the Clayton Hall. Everyone is very welcome to come along.

History Reading Group

Dromore Cathedral History Reading Group celebrates its one-year anniversary and has its regular meeting on Monday 14th May at 7.30pm in the Clayton Hall.

The book for discussion is Sicily: A Short History by John Julius Norwich. This book takes the reader on a 300-page gallop through the turbulent history of Sicily, encountering the Greeks, Romans and Normans as we go. Sicily's role in the Napoleonic Wars and the Second World War, as well as the emergence of the Mafia, will be considered.

As usual, Sicilian canapés and a congenial atmosphere are guaranteed. All are most welcome to attend.

Uganda and Albany Quiz Night

You are all invited to a Quiz Night on Friday 18th May at 7.30pm in the Cathedral Hall. The event is in aid of our summer and autumn mission trips to Albany and Uganda. Get a team together and come along to what promises to be a great night. Refreshments and snacks will be provided to keep your brains ticking. Maximum of eight people in a team. Suggested donation of £5 per person. It would be great to see you there.

Children's Praise Party

The annual Children's Praise Party will take place in Moira Parish Centre on Saturday 19th May from 2 - 5pm. The party is for all children aged 5 - 11 years. The children's challenge this year is 'Ready to Go'. The children will make a paper plane with a message to share about God to the World and then get ready to fly it around our world! Anyone wishing to attend please contact Margaret Bailie on 07715 602078.
