Breast Screening Services

Health NI are currently engaged in a public consultation regarding proposals to remove the Breast Diagnostic Centre from Craigavon Area Hospital which currently serves the whole of the Southern Trust area. Closure of this facility would mean that women who have need of these services would have to travel to Altnagelvin, Antrim or the Ulster Hospital.

If you wish to retain the current level of breast screening services available through Craigavon Area Hospital, then please do sign the petition in any of the Church porches over the next couple of weeks. All adult men and women can sign the petition.
